Honorable Albert P. Morano
House of Representatives
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Morano:

STAT

Thank you for your letter of 8 May 1957 concerning
Mr. [redacted]

STAT

Mr. [redacted] has talked with one of our senior operating officials concerning the type of assignment he was seeking. As this representative has explained to him, we could not offer him such an assignment. Following that interview, we have considered the possibilities for using Mr. [redacted]'s services in some other line of duty but have concluded that we have nothing which would be appropriate to his background and interests. A copy of our letter to him to this effect is enclosed.

STAT

Your interest in referring prospective candidates to us is appreciated.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
Director

Honorable Antoni M. Sadlak
House of Representatives
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Sadlak:

STAT

Since your referral of Mr. [] to us, he has met with one of our senior operating officials to discuss the type of assignment he was seeking. As this representative has explained to him, we would be unable to offer him the opportunity in which he was interested.

Following that interview, we have considered the possibilities of using Mr. [] services in some other line of duty but have concluded that we have nothing which would be appropriate to his background and interests. A copy of our letter to him to this effect is enclosed.

Your interest in referring prospective candidates to us is appreciated.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
Director
